TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

The Museum and Grand Hotel, Scarborough. The Museum, built in 1828, contains many interesting exhibits, not the least of which is the skeleton of a British chieftain, found in the locality. The Grand Hotel is at the right of the picture, and is the largest hotel in Scarborough. In the foreground will be seen the roofs of the Aquarium, an extensive place of entertainment, very popular with visitors.
